

SMALL BUSINESS SMILES...

- Charentsavan-

*I*n the town of Charentsavan- one of Armenia's small but very hospitable spots, an enthusiastic entrepreneur Vardan Makinyan with his everyday hard work and dedication organizes and brings to life an interesting business idea. Vardan and his team of 30 employees carry out glass bottles' collection and sorting for the purpose further processing.

*I*t is remarkable that everything is organized entirely up to almost 100% efficiency here: firstly, the bottles are sorted, washed, upon the request of the client company, are delivered in the form of scraps, and in some cases plastic particles are separated from the specific types of bottles and sent for recycling .

*A*s with any big project, this small business was initiated from a small idea, but with a strong belief towards success. As for today, Vardan has already signed contracts with a number of major companies producing soft drinks.

*V*ardan Makinyan believes that doing business Armenia demands a certain persistence and, of course, has to be accompanied by hard work.

*W*ell, we wish you good luck on your way, Vardan!
